Into this:

Come take part in a unique grass-roots citizen project! Join your neighbors to help bring our streets to life by creating murals to be placed on boarded up and vacant storefronts.

First, we'll discuss what kind of stores we want in our neighborhoods. Next, with the help of students and resident artists, we will vote which drawings we want to make into life-size murals depicting storefront scenes. Finally, we will have a "Grand Opening" party by placing the murals on boarded-up storefronts. Not only will this add color and life to our neighborhoods, but it will also allow us to share with others a vision of what we would like to see.
